

A Helping Hand

When You Need It Most

Built on a Foundation of Trust

Without the appropriate care, the ageing journey can be overwhelming for individuals and families. If your family is supporting you with care, it can be time-consuming and draining for everyone. Different stages of ageing and different types of age-related conditions, require different approaches to care. At Senior Helpers, we support both you and your family by providing the appropriate level of care to help you remain as independent as possible.

That's Home Care, Only Better.

-  Helping Australians since 2011
-  Industry leaders in Alzheimer's, Dementia and Parkinson's Care
-  Committed to responding at a moment's notice
-  Personalised daily plans to sustain independence and freedom
-  Support options ranging from full-time to occasional check-ins to suit your needs

Companion Care

For those living alone or with limited social interaction, Companion Care can be a great way to increase happiness and connection, while also receiving help with those little tasks that are becoming a challenge to do alone.

From assistance with household chores to transportation for appointments, our Companion Care services a broad range of activities to meet your individual needs.

Personal Care

With ageing can come a range of personal insecurities and challenges surrounding safety. From being safe in the shower to having difficulty with fasteners or even brushing your hair, our Personal Care services allow you to live independently while receiving the appropriate care to support your safety and freedom.

Senior Gems®: Alzheimer's & Dementia Care

At Senior Helpers, we take a unique approach to Alzheimer's and Dementia Care through our Senior Gems® program. This program allows us to make both your life and your family's life happier and less strained, by focusing on what those with dementia can still do while respecting what they can no longer do.

Parkinson's Care

Our industry-first Parkinson's Care program equips our Support Workers with the appropriate tools to ensure that you and your family receive professional, tailored care.
